Which said severall Committees of the said severall and respective Counties and places, or the greatest part of them shall with all convenient speed after notice of this Ordinance given to them, or any two of them meet together within the severall Counties and places respectively, where they are Committees; in some convenient place within the same Counties or places, and may there agree to sever and divide themselves for the execution of the said service unto such Hundreds, places and Divisions within their respective Counties and places, as to them shall seeme meete and expedient, and after wards the said Committees, or any two of them respectively shall direct their Warrants to such number of persons as they shall thinke fit, within their severall and respective Divisions, to appeare before them, or any two of them, and upon their appearance the said respective Committees, or any two of them, shall nominate and appoint such persons as they shall thinke fit within their respective Divisions; which said persons so nominated, or any two of them, shall have power to assesse all, and every person or persons, Fraternity, Guild, Corporation, Mistery, Brotherhood, and Commonalty, Corporate or not Corporate, chargeable by this Ordinance, according to the weekly rates and proportions in this Ordinance mentioned.

And the said respective Committees, or any two of them, shall have full power and authority within their severall and respective Limits and Divisions, where they shall execute this Ordinance, to nominate Collectors for the money so assessed and rated as aforesaid according to this Ordinance, which said Collectors shall collect the said moneys so assessed, and pay the same to the Treasurer of the Army, raised by the Parliament for the time being, at Guild-hall London, or at such place or places, and to such person or persons, as the said respective Committees, or any two of them shall appoint; and if any person or persons, Fraternity, Guild, Corporation, Mistery, Brotherhood or Commonalty, corporate or not corporate, rate, chargeable by this Ordinance, shall refuse to pay the sum or summes upon him or them assessed by vertue of this Ordinance, or shall not pay the same upon demand at the place of his abode, or where such assessment shall be made, it shall and may be lawfull to and for the respective Collectors, or any two of them, to levy all and every such sum and summes so assessed by way of distresse and sale of the goods of the person or persons so assessed, where ever the same shall be found, and to breake any House, Chest, Trunke, Box, or other thing wherein any such goods are : and if any person so distrained, or other shall make resistance, it shall be lawfull to, and for the said respective Collectors, or any of them as they shall see cause, to call to their assistance, any of the Trained Bands, or Companies of Voluntiers, or other Forces of or within the County or Counties, place or places, where such resistance shall bee made, or any other person or persons whatsoever, dwelling in or neere the place ; and the said Trained bands, Voluntiers or Forces, and the severall Officers, Commanders, and souldiers of the same, or other the persons so to be called, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting to the said respective Collectors in the premisses as they will answer the contrary thereof.

And be it also Ordained, that every person to be rated and taxed as aforesaid shall be rated and set, and the summe on him rated and set to be levied in every County for the estate hee hath, either in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, rents, annuities, fees, offices, goods, cattells or chattels in that County only; and if he have an estate, either in lands, tenements, hereditaments, rents, annuities, fees, offices, goods or chattels in severall places in one County, then to be rated in the said severall places in each severall County, according to such his said estate in the said severall places, and the summe on him set to be there levied accordingly.

And be it further Ordained, that all lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of all and every person or persons whatsoever, of what degree or quality soever, or in whose possession soever the same are, shall be rated, charged, and chargeable, for and towards the raising and payment of the said weekly summe or summes of money set and charged by this Ordinance ; Yet neverthelesse with this provision and limitation, that if the land be let or lett to, or neere the yearely value thereof, in the possession of any Tenant for life, lives, yeares, or at will, such person or persons to whom the rent thereof belongeth, to be solely chargeable therewith ; but if the same be let at any easie or small rent or undervalue, then the

summe taxed to be apportioned betweene the party or parties to whom the rent belongeth, and the Tenant or occupyer of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, as the Taxers shall thinke meete, and if they, or any of them shall doe any injury, the same to be redressed by the said Committees, or any two of them within their severall limits or divisions according to their discretion. And if any such Tenant or occupier of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall or may be charged with any summe of money contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, that it shall and may be lawfull to and for such Tenant or occupier, to stop and detain the same from and out of his Rent due for the same land, or to take his lawfull remedy against such person or persons to whom the said rent is or shall be due or belonging, who ought by the true meaning of this Ordinance to be charged therewith by Action of debt, wherein no wager of Law, Protection or Essoyne shall be allowed: And in case that any Lands or hereditaments in severall Counties, Hundreds, Parishes, or places shall be let or set for, or charged without entire rent or rents in each County, Hundred, Parish, or place, and according to the value of the Lands or hereditaments so let in every of the said Counties, Hundreds, Parishes, and places, and for all manner of debts whatsoever, or summe or summes of Money due, or owing to any person or persons, by any person or persons within this Realme, and also from any debts, goods, or summes of money remaining, or being beyond the Seas out of his Majesties Dominions, due or belonging to any person or persons residing within England, or Wales, the person or persons to whom such debts shall be due, to be charged for the same in the place of his residence or abode, at the time of the taxation only. And be it ordained, that no person having two Mansions, or places to resort to, being or calling himselfe household servant, or waiting servant to the Kings Majestie, or other Lord or Lady, Master or Mistris, be excused from the Taxes of the said payments in any place or places where he may be set or taxed. And if any person that ought to be set and taxed to the said payment, by his crime or craft, or any words or sayings, or otherwise happen to escape from the said payments to be notified and taxed according to the true meaning of this Ordinance, and that proved by Presentment, Examination, Informations, or otherwise before the said Committees, or any two of them, then every such person shall be charged upon the knowledge and prooffe thereof, and at the treble value of so much as he should, might or ought to have beene set or taxed.

taxed at by vertue of this Ordinance, and the same to be levied, gathered and payd of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements towards the said payment in such manner as is therein limited for others which refuse to pay; and if no distresse be found of the goods or other things, of such person or persons, bodies Corporate, or other chargeable by this Ordinance, as shall not pay their Weekly rates as aforesaid, then the said Collectors shall respectively have power to inquire of any summe or summes of money due, or to be due to the persons so assessed as aforesaid from any person or persons, for any rents, tythes, goods or debts, or other thing or cause whatsoever, and to compound for any of the said rents, tythes, goods, debts due to the person so assessed respectively as aforesaid, with any person or persons, by whom the said rents tythes, goods, debts, or other things due unto the said persons so assessed respectively as aforesaid. As also to give full discharge for the money by them so received upon composition or otherwise, which discharge shall bee good and effectuell to all intents and purposes.

And be it further Ordained, That if any person or persons shall find him or themselves agrieved, that he or they, is or are over-rated, such person or persons, at any time before distresse taken of his or their goods, may complaine to the respective Committees, who have executed this Ordinance within the Division or Limit, where any such person or persons over-rated shall be assessed; which said respective Committees or any two of them, shall have power upon examination to relieve such person or persons as they shall see cause; Yet the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance is, And it is further ordered by the said and Commons, that if any person or persons so finding themselves agrieved, be such as have not formerly contributed upon the Propositions, or not proportionably to others of their estates, nor have been rated and payd upon the Ordinance of Assessment, Entituled, [An Ordinance for the assessing and rating of such as have not contributed at all, or not contributed according to the Proportion of their estates,] then the said parties if they be not assessed above a proportionable part of such summe or summes, as other men of their abilitie have payd upon the Propositions, or have been assessed, and have payd upon the said Ordinance of not exceeding the twentieth part; the said Rates to stand and not to be altered, provided neverthelesse that no person bee assessed above the summe of ten pounds the weeke. And for the better encouragement of the Collectors in this said Service, it is ordained that three pence pence in the pound shall be allowed for every summe of Money which shall be Collected and payd to the said Treasurers or Receivers according to this Ordinance, two pence whereof shall be allowed to the Collectors, and the residue to such other persons as shall be employed in the said service according to the discretion of the respective Committees within their severall Divisions, or any two of them.

And to the end that all the Moneys assessed may be duly collected, be it ordained that the severall and respective Assessors within the Kingdome of England and Dominion of Wales, shall within one weeke next after their respective assessments made returne their said severall assessments unto the respective Committees aforesaid for the respective Divisions or Limits where the said Assessments shall be made, who or any two of them, are hereby required respectively, within ten dayes after the respective returnes of such severall Assessments to deliver a Copie thereof subscribed with their or any two of their hands to the severall Collectors within their said respective Divisions or Limits, and also within the like ten dayes to send up another Copie to the said Treasurer of the Armie raised for the Parliament for the time being, to the end the said Treasurer may thereby know what he is to receive of every Parish, or place within this Realme and Wales, and the said severall summes shall be payed to the said Treasurer at Guild-Hall London, who shall give an acquittance for the same, which acquittance shall be brought to John Trenchard or William Wheeler Esquires, Members of the House of Commons, who are to enter the same in a booke to be kept for that purpose, and then the said acquittance shall be a sufficient discharge to the party that payd in the said summe, and not otherwise. And if any assessors, or collectors shall refuse the said service, or prove negligent or faulty therein, the said Committees for the Divisions or Limit, where such Assessor or Collector shall so refuse or bee so negligent or faultie, or any two of them shall have power to commit such Assessor or Collector to Prison, or to set such fine upon him or them, as they shall thinke fit, not exceeding the summe of twenty pounds upon the Assessor, or the summe of five shillings upon the Collector, the same to be Leavyed by distresse, and sale of such offenders goods, to the uses herein mentioned in such sort as is herein before appointed for such as refuse to pay the rates assessed upon him or them, and shall also certifie the said offence to the Lords and Commons in Parliament, and shall have power to nominate other Assessors or Collectors.

And

And if any person or persons so assessed and rated as aforesaid shall conceal or convey away his or their goods so that no distresse can be taken, or that the said summe or summes so assessed upon him cannot be had or leavyed by any the wayes or meanes in this Ordinance mentioned, then the said Collectors shall respectively certifie the same in case he be a Peere of the Realme unto the Lords in Parliament, and if he be under the degree of a Peere, to the Committee of Lords and Commons appointed for the advance of money, and making provision for other necessities for the army; which said Committee shall hereby have power to send for such person or persons as Delinquents, and to commit him or them prisoners to such place or places within this Kingdome, and for so long time as the Committee for Examinations shall thinke fit.

And be it ordained that all and every the Assessors and collectors aforesaid, and all that shall assist them in the premisses shall bee protected by both Houses of Parliament from all damage that may come to them or any of them by this service, and shall further receive such allowances for their charge and obedience in the execution of this ordinance, as upon certificate from the severall Committees above named or any two of them shall be thought fit by the Committee of the House of Commons for examinations.

Lastly be it ordained, that where no Committees are named in this Ordinance, for any County, City, or place, there such other Committees as shall be appointed by both the said Houses of Parliament, or any two of such Committees shall and may put this present Ordinance in execution within any such County or place respectively in such manner and forme to all intents and purposes, as any the Committees named in this Ordinance may according to the purport and true meaning thereof.

Provided alwayes that no Peere of this Realme shall by vertue of this Ordinance be rated or taxed at any sum or sums of money whatsoever for any his mansion house or houses with the appurtenances in any place whatsoever, but the Assessors within whose charge such house or houses with the appurtenances shall happen to be, shall certifie the same into the House of Peeres to the end that such Peeres may be there rated for the same according to this Ordinance.

And whereas by this Ordinance, the Inhabitants within the City of London are not to be rated, in respect of the great proportion laid upon them by the late weekly assessment for three moneths; It is now ordered by

by the said Lords and Commons, that those persons within the said City of London, which have not paid the said assessment formerly rated on them, shall in case they pay not the same within twenty dayes next after the date of this Ordinance, be rated and taxed for the space of two moneths more as other Counties by this Ordinance are to be.
